R.I.P.

We were all saddened to hear of the sudden death of John Smith, a founding member of the Lismore Jazz Club and a great supporter of jazz in the Northern Rivers. Our deepest sympathy goes to Dale and her family.

A BIG THANK YOU TO ALL!

We raced into the festive season with gusto - the Barefoot Bowls was a great success and the day was enjoyed by all. Congratulations to the raffle prize winners. A huge thank you to the musos! They gave up their time for a drink and a sausage and provided us with an afternoon of great jazz.

The committee members must also be thanked for the enormity of their efforts. They all proved to be multi skilled, but only a couple took to the stage to help entertain – just as well! There was a lot of effort put in by all and without Doug to organise the musos the day wouldn't have happened.

The club has raised some much needed funds to continue meeting its administrative expenses but much more importantly to ensure that we can continue to bring quality jazz to its members on a regular basis.

The musos who entertained us were Lloyd Janssen, Frank Williams, Warwick Cleverley, Dick McCoy, Don Peterson, Dave Rankin, John Copeland, John Derkley, Mike Stebbings, Doug Heaton, Maurie & Jill vocals and guitar and Tim Keogh on trumpet and flugel horn, will be entertaining us on Sunday 28 February at the Bowlo from 2pm.

March:

Not to be missed is the spontaneous and spirited gypsy guitarist Lulo Reinhardt. Lulo, grand nephew of the great Django, is an internationally acclaimed artist and will be at the Lismore City Hall on Saturday 20 March at 8pm. Appearing with Lulo are Doug Martin on guitar, Daniel Weltlinger on violin, Sean Mackenzie on keys and percussion, Harald Becher on bass, Peter Kenard on percussion and Fabian Hevia on drums. Don't miss this exciting performer. This will be a performance you will never forget. John Shand from the Sydney Morning Herald described his concert as "the finest concert playing of acoustic guitar I have ever heard."

Tickets are on sale through NORPA at the box office, on 1300 066 772 or go to www.norpa.org.au. Lismore Jazz Club members receive a 10% discount.

Our New Website

It will be up and running by mid February. Changes have had to be made to reflect changes in the club.

The Club wishes to thank Michael Bird for his efforts in designing and continuously updating the original site. A time consuming task which he has willingly undertaken since the current club commenced in 2004.

THANK YOU

MICHAEL
