Vale—Carole Sycamore

A former committee member and founding member of the current Lismore Jazz Club, Carole Sycamore passed away on Sunday, 10 April after a four year battle with Motor Neurone Disease. Throughout her illness Carole showed those personal traits of strength, humour and tenacity recognised by all who knew her. Our thoughts and deepest sympathy go to her husband Syd, her daughter Georgia and granddaughter Ashleigh.

Carole was a jazz enthusiast for most of her life and her knowledge was enormous. This picture of Carole was taken in Bourbon Street, New Orleans in 2007 at the very beginning of her battle with the disease that was to take her life.

SUBSCRIPTIONS NOW DUE

Yes it's that time of the year again!

Subscriptions for the 2011/2012 year are now due. Your subscription is $20 and can be paid at the next gig or post to The Secretary, Lismore Jazz Club, PO Box 922, Lismore NSW 2480. A renewal form is attached.

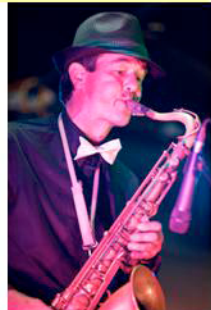

The Annual General Meeting will be held in August at a date yet to be determined. Three of our current committee members are leaving due to relocation and other work commitments. We will need several more people to join our committee. The commitment of your time is not great. The committee meets once a month for about an hour at the Lismore City Bowling Club. If you are a regular at our gigs then please consider joining. Fresh talent is always invigorating!

The Bowling Club has also asked us to remind our members that if they are not a member of the Bowlo then they must sign in at the door. If you live within the 5km radius then you need to be signed in by a Bowling Club member. All of the committee have joined the Bowlo so can sign you in.
